Breakfast Meeting Review

We had 17 Retreads for the breakfast meeting at our new location at Rudy's in Harrington. We had our own closed in private room which made it much easier to socialize and hold our meeting. We talked about the Blue Knights Toy Run in November, about having a fall Bon Fire at the shack and about the banquet in December. Glenn Larson won the free breakfast.

Fall Bon Fire. A tree was blown over at the shack and landed on the fence. This needs to be cleaned up before we can have another gathering at the shack. A few of the men volunteered to help Kenny with this project.

Blue Knights Toy Run. There are still some decisions to be made about the toy run. It's possible that the people from the Salvation Army will be at the firehouse to collect the toys and that there won't be a ride to the Salvation Army. Also no one will be able to gather inside the firehouse at the tables as you usually do. Kenny and I won't be able to attend but there is a flyer attached with all of the information if you want to go.

Banquet. I will be contacting Fraziers about the banquet and whether we will still be able to have it there.

What Happened Next

Thanks to Jim Scabet, Jim Kipp, Dave Renda and Rick Huey who helped Kenny with the clean up of the fallen tree limb and repairing the fence at the Shack. Many hands made light of the work. Now we can plan to have a fall bon fire.

I contacted Fraziers and it's a go for our banquet. You will find the registration form in this newsletter. Please return it as soon as possible. I need to give them the final count by Nov. 30th. The cost for the meal is $27.00. The club will be covering $15.00 and we ask that you pay $12.00 per person. Any guests will pay the full amount of $27.00.
